Open answers — any sentence that shows the meaning counts.

6. Review quiz answers

A la larga = in the long run; A la vez = at the same time; A más no poder = as much as possible, to the utmost; A más tardar = at the latest; A primera vista = at first sight; A propósito = by the way; also, on purpose; A todo trance = at all costs; Al contrario = on the contrary; Al fin y al cabo = after all, when all is said and done; Al pie de la letra = word for word, exactly

7. Reflection

Open answers — any thoughtful response counts.

For the teacher

Purpose: move idioms from recognition to use — students first match meanings, then choose the right idiom for a situation, then write with them. Timing: about 40 minutes, or split across two days (exercises 1–3, then 4–7). Tip: exercise 4 works well read aloud — students defend their choice before you confirm it. Warn them never to translate idioms word by word in their own writing.
